THE RANDOLPH - MACON FINALS.

VERY LONG WET SEASON.

Delightful "May Queen" Entertainment, in Which Many Attractive Girls Participated-Two Thou sand Pigeons Liberated.

BEDFORD CITY, VA., May 28.-(Special.)-The daily-usually, all-day-rain and storms have made this May, indeed, one long season. Not a few wonder if the Cuban wet season is not contagious and if undue American sympathy or the geographical inaccuracy of the weatherman is not responsible for such a pro tracted spell. In the gardens, the weeds have grown at such a pace as to overshadow their useful, if less assertive neighbors. In the farming world, tobacc planting is progressing finely, and the icreage is reported the largest in years An Ohioan, of eight years' residence in the county, states the wheat and on crops are by far the largest in his know ledge of the county, though danger o rust from the wet season is imminen in the case of wheat, and in many sec lons washouts have caused considerable RANDOLPH-MACON FINALS.

The final sermon will be preached in the academy chapel on the evening of the 5th, by Rev. J. C. Reed. of Memorial church, Lynchburg, as this gentleman has kindly consented to keep the appointment for Rev. R. W. Patton, of Roanoke, whose call to Cuba as chaplain of the Second Regiment, prevents his coming. The memorial of the late Judge Edward C. Burks, delivered before the Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia, by Samuel Griffin, Esq., of the local bar, has appeared in attractive pamphlet form. The paper is not so much biographical, as it super is not so much biographical, as its s a feeling and well-considered tribute to the life and character of this scholarly idge and jurist, whose love for the law aling passion. His exalted conception the requirements of the model judge, is work and decisions when a member the Supreme Court of Appeals, his vision of the Code, and his editorship the Virginia Law Register, the child his old age, are told by Mr. Griffin in style, graphic, sympathetic, and dis-

JUDGE JOHN J. ALLEN.

Death of This Prominent Citizen o Botetourt.

BUCHANAN, VA., May 28 -- (Special.)-Judge John J. Allen died last night, at his residence, Beaver Dam, in this vicinity, aged 66 years. He was the son of the late Judge J. J. Allen, presiding judge of the Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia, and grandson of Judge James Allen, who held the office of Circuit Judge be-fore the division of Botetourt county. He was the brother of Judge Henry Allen, deceased, of Woodstock, Va., and of Captain Robert Allen, deceased, of the Confederate army. The subject of this sketch raised and commanded a company a company in the Confederate service, and lost an arm at Malvern Hill. He and lost an arm at all the Legislature and served his county in the Legislature and as judge, and as proxy in the Baltimore as judge, and as proxy in the Batchnore and Ohio Railroad Company, and in other important positions, being aiways a public-spirited and influential citizen, as well as one of the most courteous and honorable of men. His son, W. R. Allen, is Commonwealth's Attorney of Botehonorable of men. His son, W. R. Allen, is Commonwealth's Attorney of Botetourt. Teachers Remember Superintendent Fussell.

The public-school teachers from Fair-field and Brookland districts, in Henrico, were paid off yesterday by Superintendent J. K. Fussell.

The teachers manifested their appreciation of the Superintendent's efforts on their behalf during the session with a substantial remembrance in the shape of a purse, and the genial Superintendent replied in words that in no way did justice to his feelings toward his charges. It was quite a pleusant occasion, and before it closed had resolved itself into a regular love feast, where warm farewells predominated.

The Condition of the Sick.

The condition of Miss Nellie Rogers was considered slightly better yesterday. Captain E. P. Reeve was thought to be about the same.

RICHMOND MUSIC COMPANY.

GRAYS' CHANCE NOW.

THE MANCHESTER COMPANY TO BE ASKED TO VOLUNTEER.

THE ROCK CRUSHER AT WORK.

Machine Ordered by the City Semmes-Street Viaduct Matter Still Open-Other South-Side Items.

Captain Louis Ogden, of the Manchester

Grays, received an order from Lieutenant-Colonel George Wayne Anderson, commanding the First Virginia Regiment, yesterday, to have his company at the Richmond Armory Tuesday night. The purpose of having the Grays and the other companies of the regiment together at this time is to ascertain who will voiunteer for active service, in the United States or out. That is almost an idle question to put to the Grays. Every man of them present at their armory Friday night said openly, by standing vote and by resolution, that he would go anywhere in the service of the United States. They all meant what they said, notwithstanding the deal of adverse criticism they excited by a former action; but now those who understood what they did then, and stood by them, expect to see the last one word. No one doubts that they will, and no one fears that Manchester will have aught to blush for on their account. Sergeant Robert Rives, who, while laboring under a wrong impression, three weeks ago, when the Governor first called for volunteers, urged the men not to re-spond, on Friday night last offered the resolution which now hinds the company to follow the flag anywhere. When Mr. Rives offered this resolution, he explained satisfactorily his action on the former occasion. He thought it was the purpose o make the volunteers go in different commands from their present ones, and immediately under West Pointers. All objection has now been removed, and he is willing to bear arms with the rest. Captain Ogden, who is a Confederate veteran and was a gallant soldier, assured the men at this meeting that he was ready to lead them. Captain Ogden was wounded three times during the war. He is a man of good physique, soldierly in bearing, and utterly fearless. ROCK CRUSHER AT WORK.

The rock crusher which was ordered by the city from Chicago some time ago has gotten here, and was tested yester-day afternoon at the city stables, near the jail. City-Engineer Lipscomb put it to a thorough trial, and liked it very much. It is almost wonderful how the great stones are eaten up by it, or rather how easily its giant rollers crush up all the stone that comes their way. The ma-chine will be put to work soon on the old Hull-street paving stone, supplanted now by new, breaking it up for use on the other streets.

The special committee on the Semmesstreet vinduct has, it is understood, mad a proposition to the Atlantic-Coast Line Company concerning the care of the via-duct, but it was stated yesterday that no answer had been received. The much mooted question about who shall take and care for this bridge is still apparently as streets.

This is Children's-Day at Central Methodist church, and the exercises will begin in the morning at 11 o'clock. An enoyable programme has been arranged for the occasion, which bright music, responsive readings, recita-to-day, and will administer the ordinance of the Lord's Supper. Preaching by the pastor, Rev. Harry Burruss, at night. Services will be held at the public school-house in Swansboro' this afternoon at 4 o'clock. The meeting will be conducted by Mr. James A. Balley. An afternoon school will be established if the necessary material can be obtained. All are invited to come. The services are indenominational. Rev. Dr. A. G. Brown, the presiding elder of this district, will fill the pulpit at West-End church at 11 o'clock this morning. At night the pastor, Rev. W. T. Williams, will preach a special sermon. o the Manchester Grays, who will attend the church in a body.

Stockton-Street Baptist church is without a pastor at present, but Rev. J. E. Hicks, who is an ordained minister, will fill the pulpit until a pastor is secured. Mrs. Arthur G. Evans had a narrow scape from a serious accident Friday afternoon about 630 o'clock, while in Richmond. She was coming from the West End on a Traction car, and had signalled to stop at Seventh and Broad streets. With one foot on the ground and one hand on the handle-bars, the car started off. She was afraid to let go as she would certainly fall to the ground and Anjure herself, and she kept hold of the handle and was dragged a distance of 150 feet before the car was stopped. She received no injuries but a severe fright. C. & O. DIFFERENTIAL.

The B. & O. and P. R. R. Want the Same Rate to Washington.

(Baltimore American, 28th.) Mr. D. B. Martin, manager passenger traffic of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company, returned yesterday from New York, where, on Thursday, he appeared, in conjunction with Pennsylvania railroad officials, before the Arbitration Committee of the trunk lines and argued for the withdrawal of the passenger differential granted to the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad between St. Louis and Washington and Baltimore. The rates vla the Baltimore and Ohio and Pennsylvania lines from St. Louis to Washington and Balti more is $20.25, while via the Chesapeake and Ohio the rate to the same cities is

The Chesapeake and Ohio enjoys this differential because when granted many years ago that line dtd not have the through service it now has. In addition it has greatly improved its service, and the Baltimore and Ohio and Pennsylvania has greatly improved its service, and the Baltimore and Ohio and Fennsylvania Company have suffered in consequence. Mr. Martin asked either for the withdrawal of the differential altogether, or that the three competing lines between the Southwest and Washington and Baltimore should have equal facilities. The committee reserved its decision.

The rate from both Chicago and St. Louis is the same to Baltimore as to Washington because one of the lines—the Pennsylvania—passes through Baltimore before reaching Washington. The other lines have to bring a passenger from Washington to Baltimore because the Pennsylvania company has to bring him here in order to carry him to Washington. The up-to-date traveller in the West desiring to go to Washington via the Baltimore and Ohio or Chesapeake and Ohio, buys his ticket all the way to Baltimore, and the scalper helps him to reduce the cost of the trip.

The final class song recital which was to have been rendered in public by Mrs. Alice Swain Hunter's vocal class the first week in June will be postponed until the fall, on account of Mrs. Hunter's late illness which passessitated her being some ness, which necessitated her being som time in the Virginia Hospital.

COUNCIL TO HOLD A CAUCUS.

Nominations to City Positions Will Be Made June 13th. A call has been issued, and has been pretty generally signed by the new mem bers of the City Council, for a caucus to be held on Monday, June 13th. At this meeting arrangements will be made to fill the various positions in the gift of the Council. Mr. W. M. Turpin, by virtue of his position as president of the Board of Aldermen, will probably be called upon to preside. There is a good deal of interest, but little real excitement, in the apportionment of the patronage, though a strong fight is expected for the city attorneyship. For this office Mr. Louis wendenburg is op-posing the re-election of Mr. C. V. Meredith, and the friends of both claim that their candidate will have a substantial majority. Mr. Beverly T. Crump has also been mentioned as a possible candidate. City-Engineer Cutshaw has no opposition, neither has Mr. Ben. T. August, Sergeant-at-Arms Ruskell has two opponents, but there is little opposition to the other incumbents of the various posiions to which nominations will be made at the caucus.

The nominees will be elected at a called meeting of the new Council, to be held

WATER FAMINE AT TAMPA. Mr. Minitree Tells of the Suffering of the Soldiers Quartered There. Mr. J. E. Minitree, formerly of this city, but now a travelling salesman for a New York house, was in Richmond yesterday shaking hands with his friends. Mr. Minitree is an aspirant for a lieutenancy in the United States army, and his petition for appointment is being considered by the President now.

Mr. Minitree has just returned from Florida, and while down in the Peninsula State visited the various camps of rendezvous. He says the military discipline maintained down there is much more se-vere than that at Camp Lee. He does not think that the Virginia troops will be sent to Florida for some time, be Jacksonville has as many troops there now as can be accommodated, and at Tampa there is a scarcity of water. He was told while there that the government was paying out $360 per day for water for the troops, and says that even the amount purchased for this sum was insufficient to supply the demand of the soldiers, and the volunteers, with their tongues parched, were going about the streets and around the camp paying as high as 6 cents a glass for water.

ATLANTIC-COAST-LINE CHANGES.

Mr. Thomas Symington Made Superintendent of Motive Power.

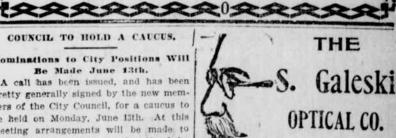

Mr. R. S. Smith, the superintendent of motive power of the Atlantic-Coast Line, has been promoted to the position of gen-eral superintendent of the system, and Mr. Thomas H. Symington, assistant superintendent of the Richmond Locomotive- and Machine-Works, has been appointed as superintendent of motive lower to succeed him. appointments are effective June 1st. Mr. Symington has only been in the employ of the Locomotive-Works about a year, but during his brief residence in this city has made many friends. He is a capable draftsman and motive powerman, and will no doubt make the Coast-Line a valuable officer. He has already resigned his position in this city. His headquarters will be in Wilmington, N.

ja 16-Su, W&F General Henry R. Jackson.

(Atlanta Constitution.) One of the most distinguished landmarks of this state disappears in the death of General Henry R. Jackson. Though ripe for the sickle of the grim reaper, it is nevertheless with deep regret that the announcement of the death of this illustrous Georgian falls upon the ears of the people of the state. Entering public life when Howell Cobb, Robert Trombs, Herschel V. Lohrens Toombs, Herschel V. Johnson, Charles J. Jenkins and other notabilities were in their prime, General Jackson forced his way with commanding prowess to the front, and such were his commanding endowments that he did not suffer eve omparison with the most brilliant luminaries of that period. Throughout his long career, extended to the patriarchial limit of nearly fourscore years, he exemplified the sturdy virtues peculiar to the ante-bellum mould of statesmanship General Jackson was called upon to fill various positions of responsibility and usefulness. As Minister to Mexico several years ago he added greatly to his own reputation, besides sereing the country with distinguished credit. But the crowning achievements of his life were won on the field of battle. In the war with Mexico, and subsequently in the war be-tween the States, General Jackson figured with commanding prominence, advancing swiftly from one post of honor to another.

At the bar General Jackson achieved well-deserved success. In the realm of letters he also made his influence felt, one of his earliest compositions the famous poem entitled, "The Red Old Hills of Georgia."

The Commonwealth sincerely mourns the death of her filustrious son. She treasures the memory of his life with tenderness.

Cavalry Song.

Our good steed snuffs the evening sir,
Our pulses with their purpose tingle;
The foeman's fires are twinkling there;
Halt!
Each carbine sends its whizzing ball;
Now, cling! clang! forward all,
Into the fight!

Dash on beneath the smoking dome; Through level lightnings gallop nearer; One look to Heaven! No thought of home; The guidons that we bear are dearer.

The guidons that we beer are dearer.
Charge!
Cling! clang! forward all,
Heaven help those whose horses fall!
Cut left and right.

They flee before our flerce attack!
They fall! they spread in broken surges!
Now, comrades, bear our wounded back.
And leave the foeman to his dirges.
Wheel!
The bugles, sound; the swift recall;
Cling! clang! backward all!
Home, and good night!
—EDMUND CLARENCE STEDMAN.
